Testerday was a great day in old defierson.
Our gallant Yates and other Republican speak largest assemblage that ever met at this place parsons; many Democrats admit that there was not far from that number, while many Republican she far from that number, while many Repub

a. I am assured by those who counted, that there was over two bundred wagons, besides assural hundred buggies, and quite a number on horseback, making in all about fifteen hundred in the procession.

Salem (Marion County) turned out about affices hundred strong, headed by their Wide lawkes. The procession was interspersed with lags, banners, motions, cablema, &c., almost without number, all of which were appropriate, sed miny of them highly amusing. The speakers advertised all fasted to come, even Mr.
Takes himself. This was a and disappointment, and one which was keenty feit. Egypt is not the place for such things. J. G. D. Pettijohn of the Republic, and D. T. Lineager, Eaq., of Wayne County, addressed the meeting. Mr.
P.'s speech was a fine intellectual effort. Mr.
La was full of "upics" and was well received.
The Hazsiton Glee Club was present and added much to the interest of the occasion.

Great unthaulaum prevailed throughout the day. Choser after cheer was given for our gallain standard bearers, and all seemed to feel the flaceause of freedom was moving gloriously caward.

Whether it is new or old, I cannot say; anyhow it struck me as good:

A negro-worshipper (Democrat) in conversation with one of opposite taste and sentiment, called him a "Black Republican." "Welt," replied the other, "That is not so bad, after all. We do certainly wish to keep the negroes black, but somehow or other you Democrats have a knack of blacking them, and therefore deserve the title of Democratic Negro-Beschers.

When Wentworth assumes that Ogden is in favor of high salaries and opposed to concomy, he knowingly asserts as falsehood. Mr. Ogden will not only support a biff enting down inordinate salaries, but he can do ten times as much towatch effecting its passage, as the man who lies about him.

It is not necessary to drag the Mayor away 200 miles from the place of his efficial duties. He is needed at home. He is paid neces'y dollars a seek for attending to those duties. — A was in the empty of Mr. Jens M. Morse of Belleville, Mass., on Wedneaday, while engaged in storing away some hay in a barn, slipped from the scalfolding and fell several feet on to a fork, one prong of which entered the right check, passed through the check bone behind the eye, through the brain, and came out on the top of the head, projecting two isches. About eight itches of the fork were in the head, and a fellow-bover had much difficulty in drawing it out. He retained his consciousness, rode to his home two miles distant, and walted up two flights of stairs to his room, without assistance. Though so severely injured, at the last accounts his physician was not without hopes of his recovery.—Boston Courier.

test of the Democrats are consoling themselves with the fallacy that Washbarn's mejority in Maine now is not as large as Hamilin's was in '56-when, according to the Baffalo Aspublic he had a mejority or 26,000. But this was not his en forty. He had that piurality over his highest competitor. Over both, his mejority was but 19,234. How much less than this is the Republican majority now?

MORAL VALUE OF A KNOWLEDGE OF PROURES.—
A county coart judge in England, of very large experience among the people of a poor district, asys: "I have frequently remarked in my court that I what I could impress upon all persons the opinion which I entertain, that the greatest contribution to the morals of the population which could be made, would be a knowledge of figures. It would sid the poorer classes in co-conomising their expenditure, make their dealings more honest, and save them from an enormous amount of immosition."

Potato Kov on the Hudson.—The recent heavy rains have caused the potatoes to rot in many counties on the Hudson. Whole fields, containing six, eight and ten acres, in Columbia county, are entirely destroyed, or nearly so, and it other cases they are so far gone that it will sol pay to dig them. In Sullivan county, also, the potatoes are nearly all destroyed.
Whole fields are affected in a short time, and many of the farmers are digging them for freeding. This have also been considerably damaged by the prolonged wet weather.—New York Chicago Law School.—A new session of the Law School of the Chicago University commenced yesterday. The school is now in the full tide of successful experiment, with a fine corps of Professors, and a large number of students, and we doubt not, will prove as honor to the University and to the West. Of Professor Booth, the head and from of the Institution, the graduate all testify warmly to the able and the graduates all testify warmly to the able and luminous manner in which he expounds the law, and to his searching acuteness in the re-citation room, as well as his courtesy as a gen-mit to the Republican County Convention, in good faith.

Another equally false report, told by the same peddiers, was to the effect that Mr. Ogden wants to decline in Wentworth's favor for Senator, and be a candidate for Representative from the Ninth District. Mr. Ogden is not in the habit of playing second fiddle to Mr. W., nor is he the man to enter into any such bargain and sale arrangement. The perfection of the orchestral performances, under the direction of Mr. Bala:ka, and of the chorusses of the Messiah, by members of the Musical Union; and the Normal Musical Institute, under the direction of one of the teachers of the latter, were remarkable, and abundantly swidenced the skill and care of those who preevidenced the skill and care of those who pre-pared them. Alleged Ronsky.—In the Police Court yesterday an ex-omaibus driver named Abbott was arraigned, charged with stealing $65 from a driver named Newton. Abbott has been for the past two years driving a bus for the Messrs. Walker, until some week or two since, when he was discharged. Since that time he has remained in the city, and has been aleeping in the same bed with Newto, at Walker's stable, on Desplaines street. Saturday night when Newton went to bed he states that he had the money. Abbott arose in the morning and came down town, after which he went back, and meeting Newton, told him he had lost six dollars—when town, after which he went back, and meeting Newton, told him he had lost six dollars—when Newton, putting his hand to his pocket, found his own money was gone. There was but very little evidence to connect Abbott with the theft, as the door of the stable was unlocked all night, and another man also slept in the room. He was arrested, however, on Wednesday night, and Justice Alten deemed the evidence anficient to warrant holding him to ball in the sum of $300, for want of which he was committed.

takes have occurred in the identification of bodies from the wreck of the Lady E gir, some of which have been attended with no little trouble to the friends of the lost. A strange one occurred on Sunday last, over a body supposed to be that of young Comerford of Milwanke. Upon the arrival of the body at the Cemetery from the tag, it was claimed by the friends of Comerford, and sworn to as his body. But a few misutes had elapsed however, before another party, friends of Mr. Pearce, claimed it, believing it to be his body, and later atill, came another party, as positive that it was the body of a man named Modulifie. After a careful examination of the body and comparison with descriptions, the Pearce and McAuliffe parties withdrew their claims, and the body was delivered to the friends of Comerford and taken to Milwankee that night. Arrived at that place, the body was placed in a metallic case, and preparations made for the foneral. Every arrangement was affected—the military, of which Comenford was a member, were out, and the corper would soon have been interred, when yet another party appeared upon the ground, and preving almost beyond a doubt that it was the body of a man named O'Brien, triumphantly here it away. The clothing and articles found upon the body tailled very nearly with the descriptions farmished of Comerford, Pearce and McAuliffs, with the exception that it was finally accertained that both Fearce and McAuliffs had on show, while on the body were found boots. Comerford was supposed to have on boots, as he had were a pair from the house, and o'Milwanke ocks, while on the body were found boots. A DESPONENT PRETENCE & EPOSED

The Times and Herald does not say it in so many words, but it atrives to leave the impression upon the minds of its readers, that had it been under its present control when Dr. Rice delivered his lectures on Siavery in this cite, it would have character sad that genhad it boos under its present control when Dr. Rice delivered his lectures on Slavery in this city, it would have character sed that gentleman as "an intermeddling political priest." Tain attempt to deceive the public into an erroseous belie, it simply disbotrost. It is a laily because Dr. Rice suterisins the views he dots on Slavery, and loses no opportunity to give expression to them in the pulpic and in the religious and secular press, that Mr. McCormick used his influence to get him to remove the company of the pulpic and the religious and secular press, that Mr. McCormick used his influence to get him to remove mick used his influence to get him to remove to Chicago; It was for this reason that, as rumor has it, he furnished the means to establish the Preobjerts Expositor, in every issue of which the Siavery question is treated from the Rice stand-point; and it was for the same cause that he gave one hundred thousand toffars to endow a Toeological School is Caicago in which Dr. Rice holds the chief place. Now, be it understood, we do not observe that are of this entire of the state of Mr.

Now, he it understood, we do not object to any of this section on the part of Mr. McCormick. These columns have spoken in terms of admiration of his liberality in the andownwest of the Theological School. But we do abject to his attempt to deserve the public lists to the belief that he is unwilling for Dr. R. cs to discuss the Sievery quistion, either in his pupil; or in his paper; and that he would as readily denouses him for doing so, as he was to coodems Dr. Eddy for processing against the murder, by procelavorry politicians, of Rev. We dubt if a solinary number of the Experier has been issued since Mr. McCormick became a newspaper sinc, that has not had more or less of its columns given up to the Sievery question; tuning given up to the Sievery question; the first has been dired by the Revall, and sone will be. Does not this provide that that journal does not object to the discussion of the Sievery question by the Sievery particular, the best price of the Experier has been issued and Berald one will be. THE STATE PAIR.

Want of space will allow us to mercy action those efforts striking for their merit or demerit. In landscape, the choise bits here are two cabinet pictures by Mrs. E. D. Dickerman, of Jacksonville, which would do no discredit to private collections. We have seen worse pictures happing on the walls of the Academy of Design. One of these is particularly pleasing in its effects, and shows much freedom of handling. The seets is an autumnal sunset, which might have been caught among the Adventaget. The artists a celevied a spot where a quiet river lies embosomed in the overhanging fodge fringing its banks, among which ties the dark measive forms of evergraces and startly place, mountain peaks asserting their silent majusty in the purple dutance. Its hippiest effect is produced in the careful resoluting of the sky and anisms inted foliage reficied in the silent water. A foreible foreground is pec c'estere en the wale. It is too e'em acd neat, the beat having no water w ru dinginess about it; its merit lying in the del cate handling of burdck leaves in foreground and the tracery of the small vines. Miss H. Reed of Jacksonville takes the first premium in this department. The effect of her steedt is guired by contrasting a dark caste and foreground assists a tight ky. It is inferior to the others we have mestioned.

A Visit to the Stables of the Horses.

(From the N. Tittows.)

The all absorbing topic of conversation in furf direies of the country, is the great $30,000 are suppost kes, to be run over the Fashion United the three rese horses—Chagares, from Nonth Carolins; Places, from Virginis; and Dustil Boons, from Kestucky—are sutared. Already are numbers of visitors from all see ions of the country arriving, and the probabilities are that over fifty thutsaud persons will witheasth contest. The horses are all now at their stables on Lvig Island, Boone under the care of Mr. Paternas; Congrese under the care of his owner, Mr. Thoms Paryear; and Planets under the supervision of Mr. Young.

We found on visiting the stables, Congrese in the work of the direct his box between his gas slater Ross Bonkers and they there is a nice sevel little horse, standing about fitteen hands high, is of a bright bar, with a small star in his foresheed, the off hind beel white, and white hairs a satered here and there through his coat. He legs are good, and though he has won ten races; they are as clean as a toal's. His bead is rather plain; and in that he takes after his usels, the famous B. Middlaton. He has a strong, missenfer heet, each as denotes a stout here, good health, and doing his work well. The following size the propased. He looks like a horse of cuturge and autorance, and this thepse country of the prepose of reserved in the blood to the seedle. His hooks are night, and we have it on the testimonal and the propose of the great size plain, and the second served the propose of the seedle his abire, is the blood from Wary, Trump and Sultan. Of the two former, it is not necessary to speak, and perhaps for a series of years no stables on got on many winners of the great English reces as the latter. This blood is mixed with that of Monarch in Congres.

From Congrese's stable we made a visit to Daniel Boune, the champion of Kentucky, We and him a barse of great size, power, and com-No. 63 Edina Place, BETWEEN VAS BURES AND HARRISON STS. Under the bead "A Dinner at the Mayor's," Harper's Monthly for October contains an arti-cle from which we shall cull some choice portions. We must premise that the dinner was given by the Hon. Fernando Wood, during mayorality of New York in 1855, and the his majorative which was a private one, included Gen. Scott, Ex-Presioent Van Baren and his son John, Washington Irving, Commodere Perry, Hon. George Baucrott, Ex-Governor Horatio Saymour, Ogden Hoffman, and barrister Gerard representing the bar, and a few other loca celebrities:

Upon entering the dining room, the Ex President was waved to the right, and Gamera Seost to the left of the head. The Gamera with a grace most delightful, took Iriving by one arm and Bancroft by the other, saying, playone arm and Bancrott by the other, saying, playfaily;
"You honor me, Mr. Mayor, but allowane to honor myself by being anadwiched between the two histornan."
"A palphole bribe to a favorable posthumous biography," instantly cried Prices John.
"And long may its be before it appears?" added the Presidential father.
These bes mote seemed to drep from the neykins as Commadors Perry, Hiratio Seymour and Ogden Hoffman were obtaining their honorary places at the other end. All was napkin rustle and preliminary bustle when Irving, who had been momentarily crystating the ji-kes, twinkted his eye mischisvously, and in his peenliar low, womanly to on sain, glanning up the iar low, wemanly ve ce saie, glancing up celliar low, womanly vo ce said, glancing up the table to Commodore Perry.

"General Scott, you ought to have for a biography more genuine luster than either Mr. Bancroit or I could give you; in fact, you ought to be Jaseansed, and the Commodore yonder is your man."

This agreeable saily took all eyes to the burly and bluff Commedore, who, always bloshing like a wrue seames, seemed to grow fominine about the eyes as he say all the others levelled at his quanter-deck. But he railled enough to stammer out that, "for his part, he preferred the Knickerbocker abines."

Commodore Ferry was the most all out man at the table. I had acver much him before, but I was charmed with even in silence. He seemed the embodiment of a true sailor, who loved to listen to the yaris of the scholars around him. There was a spontaneity of hearty reponse, however, when he was addressed that tempered the licenses of the dining room with the decision of the quarter deck.

General boott referred to the first volume of Irving's tile of Washington, just then in press sion of the quarter deck.

General Scott referred to the first volume of fering's Lit e of Washington, just then in press. Irring and he hoped to live to finish it. Said Bancoti, "I trust the pages are not to be your limit of life." "I hope," retoried Prince John, perceiving that Mr. Irving grew modes, "that the pages of your history, Mr. Bancrott, may measure your life." Bancrott laughed hearting at the sails, and said that, if at has age he had only got down lower the America revolusly got down toward the American revou-on tefore he came to the campaigns of the merican Mariborough, (bown g to Scott,) ecreptude, as well as the responsibility of he tack, might altogether prevent its compleion. Goot's health having been drunk, he was called upon for his rattlemake story. It seemed that, during the Florida campaign, the General and has said eare quartered for a sight in a rough building constructed from the ground, and the floor open at various places, correly and the preparations for the bivonac beam complisted, when a nouse from below of rattling told conclusively that rattlesmakes had have belowace the ground under the floor. "Chome, now, I protest against this belif-ting the memory of Washington," said Mar-tin Van Buren playfully. "Remember, at least, that he was done so unfortunate as to be "Next to Washington, who is your favorfile Revolutionary here?" some one asked of fir Irving.

"A very hard question," he replied; "but my mind isolines to Philip Schuyler.

"Ay !" responded Hoffman begrillv. "With nil my heart, ay! Like Washington, his purse, his time, his home secrifices, his disinterestdeerviers, his burief of slights—all, all were at the demand of his country."

Gerard, soon after Bancroti's retirement, told a very annaing passage of travel happening to Ned Sandford this New York conferse, less in the Arctic steamer the previous attempt and himself in Vienna. Sandford persisted in wearing a felt hat a la Kossuth, and had several times nearly get, into the substance of the Austrian police. One monohight alphi, by the sid of a few grooshes, he explared an organ grinder and set him at work in one of the public squares. After he had got freshe and up to his malouty, Santord, leaving Gerard at the foot of an adjunt ig equestrian status, by which also the organ grander stood, climbed upon the railing, and mounting the Kossuth hat, asked the purreyor of harmony in raiher fould thous, to piezes strike up the Marzelliaise or any tune favorable to therety. At this sentence a convenient spy, who mentally added that and liberty together in his despotie arithmebule as a dangerous sum, arrested the extunerant barrister, and was about to imprison him, whon Gerard, interferlog in the right kind of diplomator French, convisced the efficial that his American friend was erasy and had been sent abroad for a cure. The spy asked Gerard what made him crusy, to which he made answer that his friend had unfortunatels in early youth awainered a spreadeagle. "Not balf so erasy as the Austrian cost

Most of our lady readers, we stupoose, have smiled over the pictures of the first French Em-pire; of the high-bred dames of Napoison's Court in digos sleeves, monatrons head pieces, waists uncer their amplits, short cluging akirts, and elaborately wrought stockings. Few skirts, and elaborately wrought stockings. Few of them, perhaps, are aware that they re seemingly deauned to wear this very costume before they are many years older. Fastion moves in a circle: the past always returns after an interval of greater or less duration. The indications of a return of fashions of 1804-10 at the present time are too decided to admit of any doubt, and we are informed that the abrordest tailor and millioness and millioness.
